KEY SCRIPTURES

Ephesians 2:10: For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Luke 4:18-19: "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

Luke 14:12-14: Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. 13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, 14 and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

1 Corinthians 12:22: On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable....

READ & REFLECT on the above Scriptures using the questions below:

- What do you notice about who God is and what He values in these passages?
- Was there a word, phrase, or verse that stood out to you? Why?
- What do these verses reveal about how we can reflect God's inclusive love in our relationships and community?
- How do these passages challenge or expand your understanding of what true inclusion looks like in God's Kingdom?

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Which Scripture hit you in a new way?
2. What did you learn that you'll carry with you?
3. As a result of what you learned, what might think or do differently? What action steps are you contemplating?
