

REBUILDING

DOING WHAT ONLY YOU CAN

WEEK 4: NEHEMIAH 6

When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it—though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates— 2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono.”

But they were scheming to harm me; 3 so I sent messengers to them with this reply: “I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?” 4 Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.

5 Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter 6 in which was written:

“It is reported among the nations—and Geshem says it is true—that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king 7 and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us meet together.”

8 I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

9 They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.”

But I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands.”

10 One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you—by night they are coming to kill you.”

11 But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Or should someone like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!" 12 I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.

14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophet Noadiah and how she and the rest of the prophets have been trying to intimidate me. 15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.

Opposition to the Completed Wall

16 When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realized that this work had been done with the help of our God.

17 Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. 18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shekariah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. 19 Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION + OBSERVATIONS

Read Nehemiah 6:1-16 and record observations.

“BIG IDEA”

In your own words, summarize the passage's main idea in a sentence or two.

NEXT STEPS

How does this apply to your life? Make it personal, specific, and practical! Avoid factual statements. Record a specific action step and prayer, asking God for the power to walk in obedience.

CHRIST IN FOCUS

GOING DEEPER

Review and answer on your own, then bring with you to Small Group.

- ① What distractions keep you from staying focused? What strategies do you use to combat those distractions?
- ② How do you distinguish between merely good opportunities or actions and truly great endeavors? What are some practical ways we can cultivate discernment in our lives, as Nehemiah did? BONUS: Share a personal experience where discernment helped you prioritize between good and great opportunities.
- ③ Reflect on the concept that doing something great should ultimately stem from love for God and for others. How does this perspective influence your decision making?
- ④ Consider a situation where you have felt discouraged or distracted by external factors. How might praying Nehemiah's prayer, "Lord, strengthen my hands," help you to stay focused on your purpose?
