

SERMON QUESTIONS

1. Jesus brings light to our minds. Why does it matter that God became flesh? Why was this so important to John and why is it so important to us today? How does the historical knowledge of Jesus affect your relationship with him?
2. Jesus brings light to our relationships. In his sermon, Pastor Dave said, “The deepest joy in life comes when we are deeply connected with other people because of our common connection with Christ.” What are your thoughts on this? How does having that connection with Christ change the relationships in your life?
3. Jesus brings light to our conscience. Why is it important to admit when you are wrong and to confess to those you may have harmed and to God when you’ve sinned? How can this bring light to our conscience?
