

JAWES

: servant king :

the gospel of mark

◆ series overview

What kind of leader are you drawn to? Some of us prefer the “king” types—powerful and fearless. Others prefer the “servant” types—gentle and humble. The problem is, both types have their drawbacks: kings tend to be prideful, and servants tend to be weak...which is why we so often get disillusioned with our leaders. But in Jesus, we find something utterly unique: the Servant King. As King, he authoritatively casts out demons, heals sickness, and forgives sins. As servant, he radically redefines greatness in terms of humility and sacrifice. As we begin the new year, let’s spend eleven weeks walking through Mark’s Gospel, and let’s allow the Servant King to form our character and prepare our hearts for Easter.

◆ SCHEDULE

| | | |
|-------------|-------------------------------|---------------|
| January 14 | Jesus the Messiah | Mark 1:1-20 |
| January 21 | Jesus the Forgiver | Mark 2:1-12 |
| January 28 | Jesus the Teacher | Mark 4:1-20 |
| February 4 | Jesus the Storm-Tamer | Mark 4:35-41 |
| February 11 | Jesus the Exorcist | Mark 5:1-20 |
| February 18 | Jesus the Healer | Mark 5:21-43 |
| February 25 | Jesus the Provider | Mark 6:30-44 |
| March 3 | A Different Kind of Success | Mark 8:31-38 |
| March 10 | A Different Kind of Wealth | Mark 10:17-31 |
| March 17 | A Different Kind of Greatness | Mark 10:35-45 |
| March 24 | A Different Kind of King | Mark 11:1-19 |